Things to give thanks for, Things to pray for.

I want to continue using this column this month to call attention to things I have seen in the life of our church that we can be thankful for and to remind us of things to be praying for.

Thanksgiving and Praise:

For the Lord continuing to bring visitors from our community to worship with us on Sunday mornings.

- For encouraging discipleship across generations happening in Ann Jackson's small group on Sunday evenings.

- Completion of 2-year project to knock on every door in Minor and invite people to church and share the gospel. (Pray that the Lord brings fruit in his timing).

- There are three individuals attending our church (2 children, 1 adult) who have professed Christ as Savior and are being encouraged toward baptism!

- An encouraging conversation with one member who has experienced a renewed desire to follow Christ faithfully and to share the gospel with family members.

Prayer Requests:

- For the Lord to use our time studying the Gospel of Matthew to grow our love for Jesus Christ.

- For a renewed commitment to being disciples who make disciples

- For upcoming Christmas events for children. Pray specifically that their families will come and hear the gospel clearly.

- For new opportunities to meet and interact with neighbors in our community

In Christ,
Pastor Landon
