

Prayer Meeting September 21, 2022

Prayer in Response to the Word – Exodus 23.20-33

- Pray that the Lord would be with us and make us constantly aware of his presence as we are bound for the promise land. (v 22)
- Pray that we would carefully listen to and obey God's voice (v 21)
- Pray that we would place our hope in the victory God will win over his enemies (v 22-31)
- Pray that through the proclamation of the gospel we would tear down strongholds, arguments and lofty opinions raised against the knowledge of God (v 24, 2 Cor 10.4-5)
- Pray that we would remember God's blessings that he promises along the way (Ephesians 1) and long for the blessings that will be ours in the promise land (Rev 21-22) (v 26-28)
- Pray that we would patiently trust the Lord's plan and timing and that we would remain faithful as we wait to enter the promise land (v 29-30)
- Pray that we would not be led astray by idolatry (v 24, 32-33)
- Pray that we would hold fast to Christ as we wait to see his victory and enter his rest (Hebrews 3-4)

Prayer for Ministries of our Church – Preschool Ministry

- For these children to come to understand their sin and need of a savior and to repent and believe in Christ
- For the gospel to be faithfully proclaimed every time these children are at this church
- For our workers and volunteers to be filled with love and patience
- For our whole church to have a heart for these children
- Pray for the parents of our preschoolers to trust in the Lord's grace and to be resilient in bringing their children up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

-Pray for the specific prayer needs on our prayer list. (See attached)

Missionaries AMERICAN PEOPLES

Many people are displaced in the Americas. Pray as missionaries work with national partners to not only meet the physical needs, but also the spiritual needs of displaced people. May they become faithful believers and unite with a healthy church in their new home.
